At nine o'clock last night, a startling and terrible accident occurred at Mrs.
Sneed's, 98 Court street. At the hour named, a young girl of twelve years, named Miss Minnie Mitchell was standing with her book to the fireplace, in Mrs.
Sneed's room, up stairs, when her light oalloo dress caught fire and at once bigged up. She would have been more serious; injured had not Mr. T. A Brooks been at more He at once tore up a section of carpet from the corridor, and wrapping it round the burning form of the girl, managed to extinguish the fire, though severely burning his own hands at the same time. He was just in the fire fiend. Her injuries are very as the
